Negro Troops.

RICHMOND, March 22.—Several thousand persons assembled on Capitol Square this afternoon, to witness the parade of a battalion of troops from Camps Jackson and Winder, including two companies of negroes. They were armed with muskets, and went through the manual as well as could be expected, for the short time they had been drilled. Several regiments are in course of formation in different parts of the State.

Affairs about Averyville, N. C.

RALEIGH, March 23.—The Confederates has the following: Sherman's whole army was entrenched on the morning of the 21st, and we did not attack, but held our position and brought off all our wounded. There was heavy skirmishing on the 20th and 21st and several partial attacks by the enemy, which were handsomely repulsed. The troops behaved admirably, and the army of Tennessee has fully disproved the slanders that have been circulated against it. On the evening and night of the 21st, the enemy moved towards Goldsboro.

Latest Northern and European News.

RICHMOND, March 22.—The New York Tribune, of the 20th, has been received. A dispatch from Gen. Howard, dated Fayetteville, 10th, says Sherman's army was never in better condition, although some of the men are in need of shoes and clothing.

The draft was not resumed in New York on Saturday.

Disastrous freshets are reported.

The Tribune says: "If Mr. Jefferson Davis had been bribed to deliver a message to depress to the utmost the spirits of his followers, and to fire with exultation the heart of every lover of the Union, he could scarcely have published a document more ingeniously adapted to those ends than his recent message."

Gold unchanged.

RICHMOND, March 23.—The Paris correspondent of the New York Times, of the 3d, says: "The Rebel Diplomatic Council, which has been sitting here several days at the Grand Hotel, broke up yesterday. The London Index, the mouth piece of this council, declare there is no doubt, from the proceedings of the council, that negotiations are now going on between the European governments which will give quite a new turn to affairs in America, and this statement which was printed by the rebel organ, was copied by the Herald this morning. Members of the council were also heard to say that there would be peace between the North and South based on a coalition by the 1st of May." The same correspondent says: "No such documents abide evidence as that at no time since the commencement of the war has there been so much gloom or the reduction of the confidence of the people."
